DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Amsler. Amsler discloses a collapsible container comprising a handle assembly 4 and a handle set made by configuration of multiple said handle assemblies (fig. 2); and an opposing handle set (fig. 3); a grip 6 securely attached to each handle assembly in each handle set; a stabilizing bar (upper rod 5) contiguous between each said grip in each said handle assembly (fig 1); a lift bar (lower rod 5) connected to said handle assembly; a surrounding flexible strap (rope 3) connected to said handle set; a means (latch 9) to connect said surrounding flexible strap to said surrounding flexible strap from said opposing handle set; a series of support straps (ropes 3) connected at one end to each said handle assembly (fig 3); a means to connect the opposite end of said support strap to an opposing said handle assembly (strap clip or latch 7; col. 3, lines 11-16).
2. Re claim 2, said stabilizing bar and said lifting bar are connected to said handle assemblies so as to support a repositioning and linear separation of said handle assemblies along said stabilizing bar and said lifting bar (col. 3, lines 30-37; fig. 1).

Art Unit: 3654

3. Re claim 3, said grip is an integral feature of said handle assembly by way of geometric shaping of said handle assembly (see fig. 2, grips 6 are integral to rods 4).

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Reynolds US-909,222.
